

Question on optimization of systems governed by partial differential equations

Formulate an optimization problem that is governed by a state equation (this could be an optimal design, optimal control, or inverse problem). Clearly identify the (1) state variable(s) and the optimization variable(s); (2) the state equation(s) and any other constraints; and (3) the objective function. Explain the physical meaning of the optimization problem.